THE PERFECT INTERSECTION OF Fish Nerds and Ocean Lovers

*The Bay2Tray
program gives everybody access to fresh seafood*

Real Good Fish is a community of fishermen and seafood lovers looking to share the bounty of our local ocean. Using sustainable catch methods, they offer a diversity of species bringing greater health to fishermen, seafood lovers and the ocean itself.

They invest in our local fishing industry, working with fishermen, consumers, and conservationists, to protect and celebrate the ocean we love. Doing so strengthens our local economies, with a multiplying effect as those benefits circulate through local communities.
