Bianco DiNapoli Tomatoes knows that great food starts with simple, honest ingredients.

Founded in 2010 by Rob DiNapoli and Chris Bianco, their mission is to bring the very best tomatoes from the field to your table. Rob's family has been in the farming and canning industry since 1939, and Chris, a James Beard Award-winning chef known for his pizza, has always sought to highlight the purest ingredients in his cooking. Together, they've created a brand that values quality, integrity, and community.

Bianco DiNapoli Tomatoes are organically grown and harvested at their peak ripeness, ensuring the freshest, most flavorful results possible. They partner with local California farmers who share a commitment to sustainable agriculture and ethical practices. The canning process is minimal, preserving the natural taste and texture of the tomatoes without unnecessary additives. They believe that food should be as close to its natural state as possible, and this philosophy guides everything they do.

“As an Italian-American family, our culinary culture is built on love and tradition, and we take immense pride in sharing that passion. In today's world, there is a growing emphasis on the quality of what we consume, and we are mindful of making thoughtful food choices that nourish our bodies.

We are especially passionate about working with schools, as it allows us to play a meaningful role in supporting better nutrition and fostering healthier food habits for the next generation. There's no better place to inspire and nurture young, evolving minds than in an educational environment.
